[redacted] stated that subsequent to this, they had a fire at the Northbrook Inn which is suspected to being arson, but they have no proof. [redacted] stated that [redacted] [redacted] while never mentioning directly, felt that the two events were connected and that it all revolved around the fact that [redacted] former chef for Mrs. PAPIA, was working at the Northbrook Inn and that Mrs. PAPIA wanted him to return to her employ.

Pertaining to this matter, [redacted] advised that at one time in the recent past, [redacted] automobile had been [redacted] stated that concerning the fire at the Northbrook Inn, all the employees at Sally's had joked about the possibilities as to the cause of the fire. When questioned concerning these jokes, [redacted] stated that she did not want to discuss the jokes as they might not sound right at that time.

[redacted] stated that she had helped [redacted] when he opened up the Northbrook Inn as did many of the other employees at Sally's Steak House, and her main job was getting the waitresses at the Northbrook Inn started on the right foot. [redacted] stated that she liked [redacted] but she felt that he was wrong for leaving SALLY because she [redacted] was so good to him and he owed her a considerable amount of money when he left. [redacted] advised that [redacted] reportedly paid for [redacted]'s car and also paid his back taxes for which Mrs. PAPIA has never been reimbursed.

[redacted] stated that she had heard through SALLY that SALLY PAPIA, JIMMY JENNARO and [redacted] were getting subpoenaed before the John Doe because [redacted] was "talking his mouth off" about them as well as [redacted] trying to get them in trouble. [redacted] stated that she knew of no threats to [redacted] nor did she have any information concerning the fire at the Northbrook Inn; however, she stated that if the fire were not an accident, it was her feeling that either [redacted] or one of his partners could have set off the blaze as they were reportedly getting ready to break up and everything was not going smoothly. The restaurant appeared to be doing [redacted] stated that she has never heard anyone threaten [redacted] and on the contrary, everyone has been good to him; but he has not been good to others as he does not pay his debts or any of his bills. [redacted] stated she had no idea concerning the origin of the fire but it was her feeling that it was possibly an accident. [redacted] stated that she had worked five days free of charge for [redacted] when he first opened up the restaurant as did other waitresses from Sally's because they were trying to help [redacted] get started. [redacted] stated that there was no animosity between Mrs. PAPIA and [redacted] due to [redacted] working for [redacted] at the Milwaukee Inn, as there was no place for [redacted] at Sally's Steak House now as they have cooks for both the afternoon and evening dinners.

[redacted] advised that concerning the other waitresses at Sally's, the only ones she knew of were the luncheon waitresses like herself, and they were [redacted] who lives [redacted] as well as [redacted] [redacted] stated that there were two other girls but they were new and would have no knowledge concerning [redacted]

[redacted] white female; date of birth - [redacted] was interviewed at her residence, [redacted] Present during the entire interview of [redacted] with Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Agents, was [redacted] of the Milwaukee Police Department. [redacted] furnished the following information regarding her knowledge of the employees and activities of Sally's Steak House, 1028 East Juneau Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin:

[redacted] has been employed at Sally's Steak House since [redacted] Her usual hours as an employee of Sally's are from 11:00 a.m. in the morning until 2:00 p.m. in the afternoon. In her capacity as [redacted] [redacted] came to know all of the employees of the restaurant, as well as an individual by the name of [redacted] who previously worked as a cook at Sally's.

[redacted] recalls that in October of 1974, [redacted] left his employment at Sally's and opened a restaurant of his own at 124th Street and County Line Road. [redacted] had spoken of making this move to his own business for some time, according to [redacted] but no one took [redacted] "seriously" until he finally did quit. [redacted] remembers that [redacted] said he went in to see SALLY PAPIA, owner of Sally's Steak House, to inform her of his plans and that [redacted] departed from Sally's after advising SALLY PAPIA of his intentions.

b7C

the sentiments of SALLY PAPIA in discussing [] and [] [] pointed out that JENNARO and [] are both extremely loyal to SALLY PAPIA in that [] feels JENNARO and [] would do anything for SALLY PAPIA.

[] further remembers that [] did, in fact, open his restaurant. She and her husband were going to visit []'s restaurant on an afternoon right before New Year's of 1975; but when [] arrived at the restaurant, they observed a sign on the outside door informing that the restaurant was closed due to a power failure. [] [] heard the following day that []'s restaurant had burned down.

Almost immediately after the fire at []'s restaurant, [] began hearing rumors from employees at Sally's Steak House that SALLY PAPIA, JIMMY JENNARO, and [] [] had something to do with the fire. [] stated that [] who is [] to SALLY PAPIA, went to SALLY and told her of the fire. According to information [] related to [] SALLY PAPIA was not really shocked when told of the fire. []

b6

[] further indicated that although she has no information regarding a conspiracy to set the fire at []'s restaurant, that perhaps [] formerly worked for [] and may have information regarding the fire.

[] believes that if the fire was set purposefully at []'s restaurant, that it could not have been a worse time from []'s point of view in that he was heavily booked for the New Year's holidays and that his business was drastically curtailed as a result of the fire at that time.

Regarding JIMMY JENNARO, [] advised that although he carries the title of []

[redacted] that SALLY PAPIA merely tolerates JENNARO and, in fact, does not know why she does in that her boy friend, FRANK BUCCIERI, does not like JENNARO in that JENNARO thinks,
"he is a big shot."
